

INTRODUCTION

Himu.ko will be my project to showcase my passion in the creation of 3D printed objects and also to make it as a platform in selling the finished outputs.

PROBLEM

The major problem cited in making this website Himu.ko is competition in the market. Most of the makers use websites to showcase their ideas. With this, they gain sponsors and supporters that will patronize their products.

SOLUTION

Himu.ko will address the problem by engaging in the market competition. Passion in creating 3D printed objects from concepts to build and perfect online presence will make a good start.

TYPE OF THE WEBSITE
